

The Art Edit... Continued

37. CECE PHILIPS is a London based visual artist who is known for her vibrant figurative artworks. Predominantly working on large scale oil paintings, her work explores the relationship between people of colour and liberated expressions of self. To view her work or enquire about commissions, visit cecephilips.com or search @cecephilips on Instagram.

38. RACH JACKSON is an abstract artist based in Victoria, Australia. Rach loves using colour, shapes and mark making to evoke happiness and contentment. Artwork pictured is 'Gold Dust' 30 x 30cms. Email rach.jackson.art@gmail.com and find more work @rach.jackson.art on Instagram.

39. BARBARA STANTON, known for her incredible miniature paintings, is from the San Francisco Bay Area. Her tiny paintings are precisely detailed compositions, some no larger than a postage stamp. Her superb use of colour and light make each piece glow. Come look closer! To find out more, check out her website and peek into her beautiful tiny world at www.barbarastanton.com email microangelo@barbarastanton.com or call +1 925 373 9638.

40. BIANCA PRETTAU, known for her incredible miniature paintings, is from the San Francisco Bay Area. Her tiny paintings are precisely detailed compositions, some no larger than a postage stamp. Her superb use of colour and light make each piece glow. Come look closer! To find out more, check out her website and peek into her beautiful tiny world at www.barbarastanton.com email microangelo@barbarastanton.com or call +1 925 373 9638.

41. JY is a French and Mauritian painter. He picks up the colours without thinking too much and he follows his instinct for the rest. The result of it is abstract art. Visit www.jy-artiste.fr and follow @jyartiste on Instagram.

42. KYLE HICKS HEALY is an American figurative artist who, with expressive brushstrokes and impressionistic style, endeavours to capture the quality of light and the essential spirit of her subjects. Her work, held by private collectors internationally, has shown in U.S. galleries and juried exhibitions. Contact kylehickshealy@gmail.com and visit www.kylehickshealy.com.

43. SANDRA BRADSHAW is a US based watercolour artist. Her wonderful brand 'SweetSandy' offers prints that are delicate, beautiful and uplifting. To discover more of her designs follow @sweet_n_sandy_art on Instagram or visit sweetsandsandy.etsy.com

44. ERIKO KANIWA is a Japanese artist who specialises in Sensegrappia to produce exquisite and unique digital fine art. Visual aesthetics of the photograph are used to develop and express a beautiful sense of nature and its dynamic relationship with humans. Visit sensegrappia.jp to see more of her stunning artwork.

45. JENIFER CAREY, born in England but resides in Madrid, is all about movement, the moment and zest for life. Full of bold, Mediterranean colours, her expressionist works convey the vibrancy of an instant reaching out to be shared by the viewer. They are accessible yet not facile, arresting yet pleasing. Pictured is 'Ibiza II' 130 x 97 cm, oil on canvas. Visit www.jenifercarey.com and follow @jenifercarey_ on Instagram.

46. MISHEL SCHWARTZ is an award winning Canadian abstract artist, known for creating pieces with captivating colours, rich, complex detail and multi-textured elements. Using alcohol ink as her primary medium, her inspiration comes from the organic world and the undeniable lure of nature. She is emerging as a force on the Toronto art-scene, gaining recognition locally and branching out with international shows. Mishel spends most of her time in her studio working on various collections as well as private commissions and collaborations. Visit www.mishelschwartzart.com and follow @mishelart2 on Instagram.

47. JAIJO DOS ANJOS is a self-taught Portuguese artist, based in Germany. Her unique artworks invite the viewer on a journey into their own imagination. Jaijo recently exhibited at the private foundation "Rohnerhaus" in Lauterach, Austria. Visit www.jaiodesign.com contact jaiodesign.com and follow @jaiodesign.abstractart on Instagram.

48. LORELLE RAU is a contemporary collage artist, who uses cut paper and appropriated imagery to investigate concepts ranging from nature and place to personal first-hand experiences. Her harmonious compositions piece together snippets of found paper and captured imagery to create graceful linear vistas and abstract scenes. Visit lorellerau.com and follow @lorelleraustudios on Instagram.

49. ERIN NEWELL BIRD (MA Royal College of Art, London 2010) is an internationally showcased artist. Her innovative original art technique, an interplay between painting and photography, creates vibrantly-coloured and richly textured abstract artworks called waterprints. Original artwork from £200. Visit www.b-eeen.com or follow @erinnewellbird on Instagram.

50. ESTHER is an artist based in the South West, her paintings focus on catching the light in skies over landscapes that she loves. Her aim is to invite people to feel that they can step into landscapes, breathe the atmosphere, look up into the sky and wonder at the beauty of the everyday. Visit www.estherjeanes.com or email esther@estherjeanes.com to enquire.

51. SARA BRYCE is a self taught abstract painter from Melbourne, Australia. She creates layered works full of vibrant colour and texture using acrylic on canvas, and pulling inspiration from architecture, nature and textiles. For more information, check out www.sarabryce.bigcartel.com or email sarabd12@gmail.com

52. SOPIKO GELENIDZE is a London based, award winning Georgian artist. She works in oil, watercolour, acrylic and sculpture. She believes in channelling her creative urges in order to produce unique artwork. The inspiration for her work is the miracle of the female form and lifestyle. Her art is born out of a combination of her education, training and life experiences, which allows her perspective as an artist to remain traditional yet contemporary. Art is how she battles against the indifference of humans and offers new ways of viewing modern life. For more of her work, visit www.sopiko.com and follow her @sopikoartist on Instagram.

53. EUGENE GALLES is a sculptor who works from an open air studio, overlooking Santa Barbara and the Pacific Ocean. The marble sculpture shown (73cm tall) is a prime example of Eugene's minimalist abstract style. Follow @eugeneagalles on Instagram or visit eugeneagalles.com

54. JACQUELINE MIDGEN is an artist specialising in various forms of landscapes and works mainly in acrylics and pastels. She has always been interested in form, texture and colour and her main influences are the French Impressionists, Turner, Van Gogh, Gauguin, Cezanne and Georgia O'Keeffe. Jacqueline also undertakes commissions. Visit www.jacquelinemidgen.wordpress.com or email jackiemidgen@hotmail.co.uk to find out more.

55. TIFFANY WONG is an abstract artist based in Montreal, Canada. Her paintings are soft and melancholy with pops of bright colour and embroidered shapes. She is inspired by mythology and aspects of her cultural heritage like Buddhism and calligraphy. Her work is minimal and serene, influenced by the Japanese concept of wabi-sabi. Visit www.tiffanywongart.com and follow @tiffanywllart on Instagram to see more.